

Twelfth GFMD Summit

20-24 January 2020

Quito, Ecuador

Overview of Speakers - Roundtable 3.1 Supporting arrival cities through policy coherence and multi-stakeholder partnerships

RT Co-Chairs:

- H.E. Mr. Amr Elsherbini, Deputy Assistant Minister for Migration, Refugees and Combating Human Trafficking, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Egypt
- Amb. Pietro Mona, Ambassador for development, forced displacement and migration, Federal Department of Foreign Affairs, Switzerland

Speakers and Clusters Rapporteurs:

- Ms. Vittoria Zanuso, Executive Director, Mayor Migration Council

Cluster 1

- Ms. Claudia Carletto, Secretary for Human Rights and Citizenship, Sao Paulo
- Government of Belgium (tbc)

Cluster 2

- Mr. Salvatore Martello, Mayor of Lampedusa
- Ms. Tathiana Moreno, Coordinator, Essential Areas, Ecuadorian Red Cross
- Ms. Julia Onslow-Cole, Partner - Global Government Strategies and Compliance, Fragomen
- Ms. Pilar Toyos, Economist, Centro de Estudios (CEU-UIA) Union Industrial

Cluster 3

- Mr. Christian Di Candia, Mayor of Montevideo, Uruguay
- Government of Mexico or Ecuador

Rapporteur:

- Mr. Poem Mudyawabikwa, Minister Counsellor Permanent Mission of Zimbabwe to the UN Office and other International Organisations in Geneva

Amb. Pietro Mona, Ambassador for development, forced displacement and migration, Federal Department of Foreign Affairs, Switzerland

Pietro Mona is Ambassador for development, forced displacement and migration at the Swiss Federal Department of Foreign Affairs (FDFA). Prior to being appointed to this position in summer 2017, he was Deputy Head of the Global Program for Migration and Development at the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation. Between 2009 and 2012 he worked as Migration and Development Expert at the Commission of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) based in Abuja, Nigeria. He started working on migration back in 2004 in Armenia before taking up the position as migration policy adviser at the Human Security Division (FDFA) in 2005.

H.E. Mr. Amr Elsherbini

Deputy Assistant Minister for Migration, Refugees and Combating Human Trafficking, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Egypt

Amr El-Sherbini is the Deputy Assistant Foreign Minister of Egypt for Refugees, Migration & Combating Trafficking since October 2019. He has been in the Egyptian Foreign Service since 1995 and served in the following positions:

- Deputy Head of the Egypt's Mission to the EU, NATO and Belgium (Brussels, 2015-2019).
- Director of the United Nations Division at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Cairo, 2011-2015).
- Political Councilor at the Permanent Mission of Egypt to the United Nations (New York, 2006-2011).
- Political Adviser on Arab Affairs at the Cabinet of the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Egypt (Cairo, 2003-2006).
- Political Officer at the Embassy of Egypt in Syria (Damascus, 1999-2003).
- Political Officer at the International Multilateral Relations Department - Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Cairo, 1996-1999).

He participated in several international and regional meetings and worked closely on issues related to multilateral affairs, international organizations, peace and security and conflicts.

Ms. Vittoria Zanuso

Executive Director, Mayor Migration Council

Vittoria Zanuso is the Executive Director of the Mayors Migration Council (MMC), a new global initiative supported by Open Society Foundations and the Government of Switzerland in partnership with C40 Cities. As the MMC’s Executive Director, Vittoria oversees the organization’s efforts to help cities influence international deliberations and ensure that migration and refugee policy both reflects and helps cities address realities on the ground. As chief executive of the MMC, Vittoria also seats in the Steering Committee of the The UN Start-Up Fund for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration (or Migration MPTF).

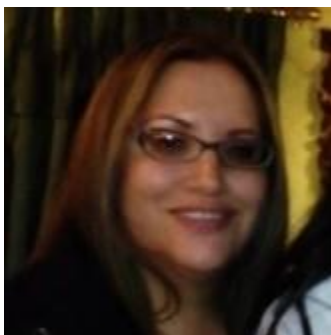

Prior to joining the MMC, Vittoria held multiple positions at the Rockefeller Foundation’s 100 Resilient Cities initiative (100RC), liaising with mayors, senior officials and private sector leaders to address natural and human-made disasters, from climate change to rising global inequality. As a founding staff member of 100RC, Zanuso helped establish a network of 100 cities from the ground up and created the organization’s urban migration practice, leading advocacy campaigns and strategic partnerships with the International Rescue Committee, Brookings Institute, and NYC Mayor’s Office of Immigrant Affairs, among others.

Prior to 100RC, Vittoria worked with the Carbon War Room, Richard Branson’s organization to tackle climate mitigation alongside the business sector. Vittoria began her career in the field of strategic communications, first at the Spokesperson’s Office of the Vice-President of the European Commission in Brussels and then on the Communications team of the Clinton Global Initiative in New York City.

Originally from Milan, Italy, Vittoria holds an MPA in International Policy and Management from NYU’s Robert F. Wagner Graduate School of Public Service and a BA in Politics from Queen Mary University of London.

Ms. Tathiana Moreno

Coordinator, Essential Areas, Ecuadorian Red Cross

Master in Risk Management and Disaster Administration. Master in Communication and Digital Journalism. RIT in Communication and Reporting. Degree in Social Communication. Independent Consultant in Risk Management and Communication. University Professor, Universidad Andina Simon Bolívar, Universidad Católica de Guayaquil.

Mr. Salvatore Martello

Mayor of Lampedusa

Ms. Claudia Carletto

Secretary for Human Rights and Citizenship, Sao Paulo

Ana Claudia Carletto is a journalist graduated from Faculdade Cásper Líbero and post graduated in Political Marketing from Escola de Comunicações e Artes da Universidade de São Paulo. She is currently a master's student at the postgraduate program in Smart and Sustainable Cities (PPG-CIS) at UNINOVE.

She began exercising her political activity in the recently created Municipal Department of the Person with Disability and Reduced Mobility of the City Hall of São

Paulo from 2005 to 2007, when, from then on, she became part of the advisory services of the former deputy and, now a senator, Mara Gabrilli - working later, until 2012, as her chief of staff in the Federal Chamber.

In the following years, she was Director of Communication of the Legislative Assembly of São Paulo, when she reformulated the activities of TV Alesp, reviewing the programming grid for a focus on providing services to citizens.

Between 2017 and 2018 she was chief of staff at the São Paulo City Hall and from 2018 to 2019 she held the position of Deputy Executive Secretary for Women's Policies at the Municipal Secretariat of Human Rights and Citizenship, implementing and managing public policies for women. Since December 2019, she has been the municipal secretary of Human Rights and Citizenship.

Mr. Christian Di Candia

Mayor of Montevideo, Uruguay

He studied for a degree in political science at the Faculty of Social Sciences of Udelar, where, in 2012 and 2013, he participated in the workshops, "Housing and Development" and "Gender and Economy".

In 2007 he joined the Departmental Board of Montevideo, through an external open competition of merit, during a year in which he was also the Political Secretary of the Presidency of the House of Representatives, and general coordinator of several projects.

From 2007 to 2009, he drafted and corrected departmental decrees and resolutions in all areas of legislative performance.

He was editor and general coordinator of the project "Producing Citizenship", of the House of Representatives. Writer and coordinator of the project "We learn, we decide and we do in Democracy" (CRR-ANEP Project 2007), and also the project "If I were a deputy" (CRR Project, ANEP, Departmental Boards).

In 2009 he was promoted, by internal competition, to Coordinator of Commissions (Deputy Director); and in 2011 to Head of the Commissions on Urban Planning, Housing, Works and Services; Urban Mobility, Settlements and Nomenclature.

In 2011 he took the course "Technique and legislative function" (APF for the CCSS, FCSS, Udelar). And in 2014, "Management skills for middle management" (ENAP, ONSC).

From 2015 to 2019, he was general Pro-Secretary of the Montevideo City Hall. During his term of office, he promoted the transformation and updating of regulations on matters related to coexistence; promoted the reformulation of the former Central Inspection Service; resumed the organization of the Festivals for Coexistence (Montevideo Rock, Montevideo Hip-Hop, Montevideo Tango and Montevideo Tropical); and promoted cooperation agreements with the Madrid City Council (Spain) and the Rosario Municipality (Argentina).

Ms. Julia Onslow-Cole, Partner - Global Government Strategies and Compliance, Fragomen

Julia is a Partner based in Fragomen's London office. She specialises in Global Government Strategies and Compliance. In an increasingly challenging geopolitical environment, Fragomen's unique Advisory Practice supports clients worldwide to optimise global mobility strategies, enhance compliance and leverage best practice in all critical immigration-related policies including crisis management.

Before joining Fragomen, Julia was a Partner, Legal Markets Leader and Head of Global Immigration at PwC leading complex multi-jurisdictional client engagements and providing strategic global immigration advice. Julia has unique experience in crisis management. She has advised several governments particularly on visa processing systems and communications and on citizenship by investment programmes. Julia has been liaising with government and business on Brexit and has given expert evidence at the European Parliament. She has also represented business at the Prime Minister's immigration stock take meeting and acted as an advisor to the Home Office on business, investment and growth.

Julia was recently appointed to the Society for Human Resource Management's Immigration Speciality Panel and to the board of the London Chamber of Commerce and Industry. Julia is also a member of the Mayor of London's Brexit Advisory Group and the Home Office EU Immigration Employer's Representative Group. She is the co-signatory of the London First/PwC Report on the impact of migrant workers in London and further report entitled 'Global Britain' covering Immigration options post Brexit released in November 2018. Julia sits on the Advisory Board of Migration Matters Trust, the Permits Foundation and the Migration Museum.

Julia is also the Chair of the international Bar Associations Human Rights Institute Charitable Trust, a member of the Chatham House Refugee Forum and a member of the Advisory Committee of COMPASS, at the University of Oxford.

Ms. Pilar Toyos

Economist, Centro de Estudios (CEU-UIA) Union Industrial

Training in the professional field

- Economist at the Center of Studies of the Argentine Industrial Union (CEU-UIA)
- Policy officer at Business 20 (B20) Argentina- coordination and technical guidance in the contents of the working tables; collaboration in the supervision and review of the deliverables of each group: position papers, public policy recommendations and technical reports.
- Head of Internal Management and Analyst at the SME Sub-Secretariat of the Ministry of Production- management reports and budgetary monitoring of the programs of the sub-secretariat; consolidation and assembly of audit reports; assistance in the diagnosis and design of policies for SME competitiveness.
- Administrative Assistant in Agricultural SME's- accounting and administrative task

In the academic field

- Degree in Economics from the University of Buenos Aires
- Master in Economics, Faculty of Economics, National University of La Plata (FCE-UNLP) - Ongoing

Mr. Poem Mudyawabikwa

Minister Counsellor Permanent Mission of Zimbabwe to the UN Office and other International Organisations in Geneva

Responsibilities: The focal point for Labour, Migration and Humanitarian issues in Mission.

Previous responsibilities in the area of migration: part of the inter-ministerial committee on migration and related issues which put in place mechanisms of reception and support centres for returnees and the facilities in Zimbabwe.