No.	TITLE	ORGANIZER(S)	LINK(S)
1	Strengthening Knowledge for Migration and Sustainable Development	UNITAR	Knowledge Hub E-learning course

This exhibit envisions to share information on how to strengthen the competencies required by policymakers and practitioners for overcoming some of the challenges on the economic and social inclusion of migrants and refugees. It is important for understanding the benefits of promoting entrepreneurship because of its nexus with sustainable development. It will be focused on: "The E-learning course on Entrepreneurship for Migrants and Refugees" and "The Knowledge Hub on Migration and Sustainable Development."

2	Policies and Practices: A Guide for Gender-Responsive Implementation of the Global Compact for Migration	UN Women in partnership with the Expert Working Group for Addressing Women's Human Rights in the Global Compact for Migration	Exhibit leaflet (EN)
---	---	---	--------------------------------------

The stall presents the Policies and Practice Guide that is a tool to support policy makers and practitioners in ensuring that gender equality considerations are central to the implementation of the Global Compact for Migration. The Guide summarizes the main issues for migrant women and girls in relation to the GCM objectives, outlines concrete measures for gender-responsive implementation and examples of existing good practices.

3	Migration and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development	ODI and IOM	Guide Interactive tool Publication

The stand will connect policymakers and practitioners with the knowledge and practical tools needed to harness migration as a driver of sustainable development. Blending extensive research on migration and the SDGs with policy tools and practice, the ODI and IOM stand will showcase a range of innovative digital tools and engaging resources to broker debate, enabling participating GFMD states and observers to engage and unite in using the SDGs and the 2030 Agenda as a framework for policy action.

4	Together we can make a difference: Mayors Mechanism's Call to Action. Invitation to cities and stakeholders to sign pledges and commit to concrete actions for the implementation of the GCM and GCR	Mayors Mechanism: UCLG, Mayors Migration Council and IOM

In Marrakech, more than 60 cities and local authorities reiterated their commitment by endorsing the Marrakech Mayors Declaration and the signatories are now ready to accelerate their efforts to make their commitments a reality. To do so, a roadmap for collective and multistakeholder efforts including Call to Action was proposed. The Mayors Mechanism invites cities and other stakeholders to make pledges and commit to take concrete actions and report on progress made in relation to the objectives of the GCM and GCR.

5	Fostering Entrepreneurship for Migrants &amp; Refugees and Empowering Diaspora Youth: Tools, initiatives and narratives for a brighter future	IOM, UNCTAD, UNHCR, UNITAR	Exhibit leaflet E-learning course Knowledge Hub
---	--	----------------------------	---

The exhibit features two separate initiatives: A capacity building-tool to foster entrepreneurship for migrants and refugees and an innovative campaign for youth diaspora to engage with communities in countries of origin, sharing knowledge and skills to support entrepreneurs and communities and to contribute to facing the challenges of our times, such as climate change and its implications for affected communities.

6	In search of decent work: tools and initiatives on labour migration	ILO	Exhibit leaflet (EN)

The ILO works to forge policies to maximize the benefits of labour migration for all those involved. The exhibition will guide participants through the world of labour migration and migrant workers and highlight ILO initiatives to protect the rights of migrant workers, including during the recruitment process, reduce the cost of labour migration and enhance development outcomes for migrant workers and their families, as well as for countries of origin and destination.

7	Digital Innovation in Migrant Registration Campaigns: Toward a Regional Approach to Migration Management in Latin America and the Caribbean	The Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)	Exhibition Leaflet (EN) Exhibition Leaflet (ES)
---	--	---	--

We are an initiative created by the Inter-American Development Bank. Using financial and non-financial instruments, we leverage investments and scale innovative solutions to tackle migration challenges in the Latin America and the Caribbean, contributing to the successful integration of migrants to their host communities. In our booth during the 12th Global Forum on Migration and Development, you will learn more about the state of migration in Latin America and the Caribbean. In addition, we will tell you more about our projects, knowledge creation, courses and open calls such as the “Better Together Challenge” (juntosemejorve.org). We'll be waiting for you!

8	Civil society's contribution to transforming global migration governance	ICMC	Exhibition Leaflet (EN)
---	---	------	---

The Civil Society Coordinating Office provides a space for civil society participants to present specific projects and aspects of their work. Presentations include interactive presentations of projects in search of solutions-driven partnerships that showcase the breadth of civil society's expertise in the field of migration and development, and to encourage in-depth solution-driven exchange focused on policy tools and/or challenges.

9	Migration and Diaspora Programme – Empowering Key Stakeholders for Sustainable Development	GIZ Ecuador on behalf of the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ)	Programme (EN) Impact stories

GIZ implements the Migration and Diaspora Programme on behalf of BMZ, which seeks to empower key stakeholders in partner countries to harness the positive effects of regular migration and diaspora engagement for the socio-economic development in countries of origin. Working in over 20 partner countries all over the globe, including Ecuador, the Programme supports the development-oriented engagement of migrants and the diaspora in order to contribute to sustainable development in their home countries.

10	Global Academy on Migration and Development: Implementing Migration Policies to Action	Global Academy on Migration and Development (GAMD)	GAMD Leaflet 1 GAMD leaflet 2
----	---	--	--

GAMD showcases the different training programs and other research and consultancy services it can provide to national and local governments, international development agencies, diaspora organizations and private sector who are looking for partners to assist them in the development of national and local policies and/or in implementing migration and development initiatives.
