Brief description

The side event will mostly focus on the specificity of migration in the Euro-Africa area. The demographic trend as well as the economic development challenges south of the Mediterranean Sea compel the European Union to deliver innovative and cooperative solution, together with its southern partners.

By gathering the high-profile members of the EuroMedA Foundation, mostly from political and academic area, this side event will endeavor to draw recommendation on how to create new Euro-African policies and new Euro-African policy dialogue.
